Teaching Good Manners.
The Bridgton (Me.) News thinks the acqui-The Bridgton (Me.) News thinks the acquisition of good manners is an important part of a child's education, and advocates something similar to the old fashion of setting apart one afternoon in the week for teaching deportment—"manners," as it was called. No doubt this old way of teaching the little folks how to behave had its merits, and so did the old ways of teaching grammar and spelling, but the modern idea is to teach these branches, not by rote, but by application. If spelling is best learned by writing compositions and grammar by attention to compositions, and grammar by attention to correct speaking, isn't deportment best taught by applying its rules every time a child enters a room or addresses its elders, rather than by devoting an hour to the mat ter once a week. The best teachers attend to the children's manners and morals as well as to their mental acquirements, and if there are those in Maine who neglect these things, it would be well to find some better edapted

"I appreciate your sufferings, sir, but I can do nothing for you."—Harper's Bazar.

Very Likely.

A tough looking citizen, wearing a cigar at an angle of forty five degrees, stalked into the elevator in a downtown building yesterday afternoon. The conductor called his attention to the "No Smoking" sign, but the tough looking citizen flipped back his coat, exhibited a star, and said: "I'm de elevator intector." The conductor made the usual apologies and proceeded to give "de inspec-tor" a ride and a chance to look over the car. He looked wise, felt of the cables, exready to depart. "Is she all right?" anxpectorated over his shoulder, and then made iously inquired the conductor. "Yes, I guess so," replied "de inspector," as he threw his cigar away, "de cable has some strands broken. It may last a year and it may break in fifteen minutes, but I guess she's all right," and he stalked out of the building. And now the conductor is trying to find out if he really was an elevator inspector.-Chicago Her-

Yes, It Has.

The new departure in architecture has no doubt done a great deal to improve the general taste of the public, but it has gone farther than that. It has made it almost impos sible for a thief to tell whether he is breaking into a church, art gailery, orphans' home or a business man's dwelling. They all look alike.-Detroit Free Press.

Scratched 28 Years Body covered with scales, Itching terrible, Suffering endless. No relief. Doctors and medicines fall. Speedily cured by Cuticura at a cost of 85.

Cured by Cuticura

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $36,00 two hundred dollars; and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a centification of the suffering than a centification of the suffering that are suffering to the suffering that are suffering that are suffering to the suffering that are suffering that are suffering to the suffering that are suffering that are suffering that are suffering that are suffering to the suffering that are suffering t amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent it spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have the disease over again. I am a poor man but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, pso-arias, etc. I took * * and * * Sarsaparillas over one year and a half but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICUIA REMEMBERS too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them were three boxes of CUTICUIAA, and three bottles of CUTICUIAA RESOLVENT, and two cares of CUTICUIAA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $250.01 you would have had the momey. I looked like the pleture in your book of Psorials (picture number two "How to Cure Skin Discusses"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my bands over my arms and less to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratchest twenty-light years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know, write me or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer. It.
